

YOUTH EMERGENCY SHELTER

The Youth Emergency Shelter is a 24-hour safe haven for youth between the ages of 10—17 who are experiencing family crisis, family conflict or homelessness. We work with the youth and community providers to reunite them with their families or find other safe and stable living arrangements.

We provide:

- A structured and safe environment
- Healthy and nutritious meals served family style
- Educational support
- 24 hour supervision from qualified staff
- Assistance with obtaining access to medical and behavioral health services
- Support with learning life skills
- Case management
- Counseling services
- Referrals to community agencies
